Edward “Ed” Wilson Adamache

Edward “Ed” Wilson Adamache, aged 86 years of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, passed away on Monday, April 6th, 2026.

Ed was born on June 9th, 1939 at his home in Wheatstone, SK. He attended school at Claudia and Kayville. He worked for various farmers throughout his life. Ed went to work for CP Rail and found the work to be very challenging. He then decided to join the Royal Canadian Engineers in the army and was stationed at Chilliwack and Vancouver, BC and at Petawawa, ON. In 1959, Ed moved back to the family farm and worked various jobs in many places.

In 1963, Ed married Erna Rempel, who was working as a teacher. They farmed at his parents’ farm west of Kayville. Ed and Erna started their family with Travis (1964), Janice (1966), Sheryllee (1968), Jason (1969), and Melanie (1971). In 1971, the family moved to Moose Jaw and Ed still farmed and worked on many jobs in the field of Power Engineering, which took him to 15 Wing Moose Jaw and the University of Regina.

Ed and Erna enjoyed travelling with their family. In retirement, they went on several bus tours and took many road trips to Georgia. Ed loved his family and spending time with them. He had a great fondness for his grandkids and great-grandkids.

Ed had several bouts with cancer, as well as other health issues, throughout his life. This eventually led him to requiring extra care at Pioneer Lodge. The family are incredibly thankful for the care he received while at the Lodge. The activities staff were exceptional in their care for Ed.

He was predeceased by his parents, Vasile and Mina Adamache; brothers: George (Vera), John, Jake, and Roy; sisters: Eugenie (Eugene) Tater, Laura (Elie) Richea, Annie (Mike) Topal, and Violet (Ken) Johnson; brother-in-law, John Neamtu; and daughter-in-law, Cheryl Adamache.
