Pauline grew up and went to school in the Grainland area. She later moved to Calderbank where she met then married Walter Adrian on October 7th, 1943. They worked hard on the farm and raised their four children there. In 1988 they moved off the farm and into Morse. Mom was a good cook and baked delicious bread, cinnamon buns and other treats. She grew a huge garden, did much canning of fruit and pickles, and enjoyed tending her flowers. She was interested in sewing, crocheting, singing, playing the guitar, organ, and keyboard and at one time belonged to the Royal Purple organization. After they moved into Morse, she enjoyed bowling. Mom was very loving and her family meant everything to her. We are all going to miss you, Mom. Tootle-ooo. There will be no service, in accordance with Pauline’s wishes.
