Dear Uncle Johnny, Bruce, Janet and family,
Very sorry to hear about Auntie Liz (as we called her as kids). Growing up we saw Johnny and Liz often as I babysat, and they visited a lot with Mom and Dad. I remember her as a very capable woman that could cook anything, hard worker, very smart and she always had a big smile and happy voice.
Al lovey woman, and my condolences to all.

I was saddened to hear of Sister Liz passing. I will remember her fondly for her wit, her attention to detail. She served as Secretary for her Eastern Star Chapter in Moose Jaw. I had many visits on the phone with her over the years.

Her voice and laugh will live on in my memory !
True comfort is found in the warmth of memory.
