   Happy Heavenly Birthday Blaine! Hope you are at peace. You will be missed. Played John Prine’s “When I get to Heaven” tonight and sent it out to you wherever you are. Hope it made you smile

I remember all of us cousins together at your house a long time ago. And I look at the photograph in my hands and see you at 7 years of age in the front, looking at the camera, and I look at your eyes. Brenda is there and so is Reg; there's my sisters Barb and baby Jill, and there's Sharon and Tom, and me – so many decades ago.

The last time we ran into each other, we had a long talk, a good talk. I cherish that.

Rest in peace, my cousin.

You are in our hearts.

I want to write something here…. something smart and tender so that everyone can feel what I am feeling… I can't find a starting point. Blaine was "special" to almost everyone he came in contact with. It seemed to me that most of the guys wanted to be around him, most girls wanted to be with him. He had everything going for him yet, as others have said, he remained humble to everyone. He didn't have to go and tell everyone he was the star. He just went out and proved it. He is another classmate that I wish I had spent more time with after high school."Life is what happens to you when you're busy making other plans." – John Lennon.

Here are some of the emails that I received from classmates.

Julie Czekurlon – Such sad news that someone so young has passed. My condolences to the family and may he rest in peace

Randy Moore – Hey Jim, very sad for sure. He was definitely a very good athlete. I think the last time I saw him was at the 20th.

Cathie Hunchuk – Thanks for letting us know. Blaine was a huge part of Randy's life in school and for a few years after we graduated. They were partners in crime and near misses. Always an adventure. Blaine's record collection was second to none.

We reconnected with Blaine several years ago at the Regina Folk Festival and stayed in touch until he had a bout with cancer. After which he kept to himself much more. The last time we saw him was at the class of 71 gathering at Dave and Edith's back yard. We had a nice visit. Today is a sad day.

Cath

Brent Philp – Very sad news RIP Blaine

Lissa Gruza – Very sorry to hear of Blaine's passing. I knew that he had battled cancer years ago. May he rest in peace and his memory be eternal!

Randy Passmore – So sad. He was a good friend. Taught me a lot about music

Claude Duke – How very sad to hear of Blaine's passing. Such a good guy. He was a big part of our hockey and soccer team's success.
John, Walt, Gerry and Blaine. Hard to believe that we have lost these very good people Live for the moment. Life can be so cruel sometimes.
Take care Jim.
Bonnie Hallett (Walrath) – So sorry about Blain he was such a sweetheart. Bonnie Cheryl Haw (Zerr) – Thank you for sharing this sad news Jim. Life is so uncertain.
I had quite a crush on Blaine back in the day….
Just a few of the lives that Blaine touched..
Right now I can't find the words to add anymore… I just wanted to get this out before we all head into something else and the right words don't get said.
Rest In Peace Blaine… Your were "Something Special"
Jim

Sadly I just learned of Blaines passing.
We grew up together playing street hockey on the corner on 10th Avenue and Lillooet and the outdoor rink by Westmount school. Got into a little mischief sneaking into the old Texas Refinery yard to play baseball and football or in the winter sliding on the back of city busses. Great memories of a much simpler time.
Even back then you could see what an unselfish, naturally gifted athlete he was.
We stayed connected for many years after leaving Moose Jaw, getting together to reminisce about “the good old days”.
Regrettably, as it happens in life, time and distance got in the way and we lost touch.
I truly hope you have been able to take time, as I have, to remember the best of “Roxy”.
Rest easy my friend
