Our heartfelt condolences for the loss of Leo. Leo has been my dad's meal partner and best friend at Mulberry Estates since the two met a couple years ago. Dad misses him greatly and so do I. He was good company—thoughtful and interesting and he had a nice sense of humour. May he Rest In Peace. We are consoled only by the fact that Leo's suffering was not prolonged. I am posting this on behalf of my dad, Bill Hodgson and my husband Béla, as all of us will miss him but remember him with fondness.
