So sorry to read of Dorothy’s passing. We worked with Dorothy for many years at Providence Hospital. She was a great person, always reliable, helpful and upbeat. She was famous for her beautiful Christmas decorations throughout the hospital. May she be at peace. Sincere condolences John and Muriel Morhart

Thinking of Dorothy today. Even though we've lost contact, she was always remembered by my brother Russ and myself as a genuine friend, and good soul. Condolences to Dave and Steve on your loss.
