A letter to Rick , Rick , you are being missed on the rails, in the bunkhouses and homes of all whom have had the honour to meet and know you.

I came to see you in the hospital , but you were sleeping so peacefully, didn't wake you up, I wish I would have.

Even in the depts of your illness you were the same charismatic and thoughtful Brother.

We will smile and laugh when we meet again. Rest in peace my friend.

Thinking of the Boszak family during this difficult time. No words can repair or alleviate the sadness of Rick's passing. Think of the good times, cherished memories, and be present for one another. Take care of yourselves and each other.

My condolences to the Boszak family. I first knew Rick has a young man playing hockey, and then met him later on in my career at the railway. Was always a friend and a brother.

Rest in peace, Brother Rick.
