JACK EVERETT BRETON

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Jack Everett Breton aged 77 years of Moose Jaw, SK, on Saturday, December 9th, 2023.

He was predeceased by his parents, in-laws and six siblings. Jack leaves behind his loving wife of 51 years, Elaine; children: Angela, Derek, and Heath; grandchildren: Vanessa (Rory), Alyssa (Sean), Hailey, and Vaughan; great-granddaughter, Madelynn; sisters, Mavis and Shirley; and brothers, Floyd and Dave (Donna).

Ooh Elaine my heart is broken. So sorry to hear of Jack's passing. Gruff on the outside but a big softee on the inside. We had so many good years playing slow pitch and then just years of friendship, He loved you so much and placed his family high on the pedestal. My condolences to you and family and thank you for all years that you and Jack were my village and family .

Our most sincere condolences Elaine and family. Jack's work can be found in our yard and we are proud of it. He was such a wonderful guy to be around, always enjoying himself and adding joy, or a good discussion, to the situation. So sorry for your loss. Jack will be missed by all that knew him.
