Dave, Doug and Rod, it was so sad to hear about your Dad. Fred was always such a good friend. I can’t count how many good memories I have of him. Traveling Saskatchewan with Dad, Charl and Fred, looking at the newest balers and other machinery, stopping in at a small town Chinese food restaurant and seeing your dad turning white after my Dad tells him the shrimp looked like cooked baby mice (after he’d eaten most of them). I could go on and on. He was such a great guy! I’ve missed seeing him since we moved from the farm. We know how happy he is now, as he is with your Mom and all his old friends. What a reunion!

Thinking of you David, Doug, Rod and families. Your dad was a gentleman and such a good friend and co-pilot traveler with my dad. Many trips to look at cattle and machinery, always up for a road tour of Saskatchewan. Condolences to all, a life well lived.
