My condolences go out to Frances and family. I remember when I was staying with my grandma(Violette)and grandpa(Arthur)Torgerson in Eskbank and I used to go and visit Lovell and Frances to play with Brenda who was just a baby at that time. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

My sincere condolences Frances, Brenda & Patty. Have not seen you for a long time but remember you all with fond memories. I recall my teacher being Miss McEwan on year and Mrs Carter the next. Lovell was a kind man. My blessings.

We were so sad to hear of Lovell’s passing. Our condolences to Frances and family. We have some pretty happy memories of visiting Lovell and Frances over the years. We can still hear his laugh. We will remember that and the hardworking, special guy that he was. Our thoughts are with you and we know he will be missed.
