Allan John Chute, aged 83 years, a longtime resident of Moose Jaw and the Tuxford District, went home to be with his Lord and Saviour on Tuesday, November 9th, 2010. Allan was born on the family farm northeast of Tuxford on October 22nd, 1927, the youngest son of Harvey and Irene Chute. Al and Marg resided on the farm until 1978 but Allan continued farming until 2000 and even this fall, still enjoyed daily drives to the country to watch the combining. In his younger years Allan was an avid hockey player, later he enjoyed many years of curling and up to the present time was actively enjoying playing shuffleboard almost daily. Allan was a dedicated family man, taking an interest in his children's and grandchildren's lives, whether on the farm or in sporting, music and drama activities. Allan was predeceased by his father Harvey; mother Irene; sister Ruby; brother Raymond and grandsons Reid and Ryan Chute. He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Margaret; daughter Darla (Terry) Thiessen – Hague, SK. and their sons Drew (Tammy) and Brett (Jenna); daughter Diane (Daryl) Tiessen – Wilcox, SK. and their children Kendra McGaughey (James) and Kyle; son Bartt (Marla) Chute – Moose Jaw, SK. and their children Andrea Garland (Rob and great-grandchildren Aubrey and Brant), Alana Chute (Mike Hazelton) and Marcie Chute (great-grandsons Rhett and Rogan); and son Carson (Carol) Chute – Moose Jaw, SK. and their children Evan (Stephanie), Erin (Jayson) Zilkie and Carter.
