Olga & James Sikorski, we are very sad to hear Arthur had to die from his sickness. We have known Arthur and his family for many years. We wish his wife and family the very best to endure faithfully until he returns back to life again in the resurrection hope as mention 1Corinthians 15:21- 26. We both love you all very much, may Jehovah give you all the needed strength to endure.

Sorry to hear of Art's passing. Please except our sincere condolences Gail and all your Families.
Art will be fondly remembered for his humour and being a trickster.
May he forever live on in the memories his Family shares and all the people that were honoured to know him.

To Gail and Colleen, a lifetime of knowing the Deets family and the Haug family and sharing the same congregation and experiences. Losing a family member is not easy as we all know, but we have that beautiful hope that Jehovah has given to us. Grab hold of that hope and never let go of it. That is what will get us through our trials at this time. Laura MacDonald and Leon Pandachuk
