Mrs. Dolan and Family; Words cannot express how saddened I was to hear of Liz's passing. Her being my best friend during my years at Vanier, she was my rock and truly my guardian angel, keeping me out of teen age trouble or from making bad decisions. She always thought of others before herself and showed it her entire life. Although keeping in touch after so many years was rare, she was in my thoughts often. She will forever hold a special place in my heart. Please accept my most sincere condolences to the entire family and know that Heaven has received a very, very special angel.
