Steven Felix Epp

Steven Felix Epp entered into the presence of His Lord in his home on Thursday, January 18th, 2018 at the age of 54 years. He was predeceased by his grandparents, John and Elizabeth Epp from Saskatoon, SK. Steven leaves to cherish his life and memory: his parents, Arnold and Bertha Epp of Regina, SK; brother, John (Charity); sister, Carla (Gary); sister, Joy; beloved nephew, Troy; as well as numerous cousins. He also leaves to mourn, his wonderful friends, Les Henry and Dianne Usher, along with Frank and Brenda Bigger. Steven was born on the Montreal Lake Band of the Cree Nation to a family of nine boys and one girl. The family lived in a one-bedroom cabin nestled in the woods. Steven and his sister Joy were adopted by the Epps when they were young children, and moved to Swift Current, SK and later to Regina, SK. His childhood was spent playing with the neighborhood children, playing hockey and fishing. He spent many summers at KBK in the Qu'Appelle Valley. As an adult, Steven moved to Moose Jaw to be closer to his sister Joy and nephew Troy. Even through the struggles with his health he always remained close to his family. A Celebration of Steven's
