(MARIE) ALINE FORER

Aline Forer passed away peacefully on Thursday, October 22nd, 2026, at the age of 95 years.

Born on December 10th, 1930, in Gravelbourg, Saskatchewan, Aline lived a life filled with faith, music, family, and service to others. Raised in the close-knit community of Gravelbourg, Saskatchewan, she developed a lifelong love of music and became an accomplished pianist through her studies with the Royal Conservatory of Music. Music remained at the heart of her life and touched the lives of countless people throughout the years.

In 1958, Aline married Donald Forer. They began their married life in Avonlea, SK, and after a year moved to Assiniboia, where they raised their family. Aline spent many years creating a welcoming home for her children while sharing her talents and generosity within the community. In 2010, she relocated to Moose Jaw to be closer to her son Cam and his family.

Aline was a devoted member of the Roman Catholic Church and generously shared her musical gifts throughout her life. She served as a church organist and choir member in both Assiniboia and Moose Jaw, enriching worship services with her talent and dedication. She was also a respected piano teacher who inspired and encouraged many students over the years, passing on her love of music to future generations.

Family was at the centre of Aline's life. She cherished time spent with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, taking great pride in their accomplishments and celebrating life's special moments with them.

She was predeceased by her grandsons, Justin Forer and Tyson Forer. Aline leaves to cherish her memory her son, Cam (Morai) Forer; grandsons, Braden (Mackenzie) Forer and Joel Forer; son, Paul Forer; daughter, Collete Forer and her children, Akaya and Myles Blair; and son, Donald Forer Jr. and his children, Jason and Tyler Forer.

Even after moving to Bentley Retirement Home in Moose Jaw, Aline's passion for music never faded. She delighted fellow residents by playing the piano and participating in the choir, continuing to share the joy that music brought to her life.

Aline will be remembered for her gentle spirit, unwavering faith, musical talent, and deep devotion to her family. Her legacy lives on in the many lives she touched through her music, kindness, teaching, and service to others.

"Music was the language through which Aline shared her faith, her kindness, and her love for those around her. May her memory continue to bring comfort and inspiration to all who knew her."

A Private Family Service will be held to honour Aline.
