I knew Em and her friend Miss Proctor a long time ago when outdoor parties where the thing to do and later when her and Kenny got together. She had a kind heart and was very patient as many a hour passed when we would play cards and risk at their house on north hill.We weren't the quietest bunch but she always was pleasant.I had not seen Em in years my sympathies to family and friends.

Your mom was a loving and caring lady. I met her when my mom was at Zetters Care Centre. She was always sooo good to my mom. Emily and I chatted many times through these last few years. She will be deeply missed.
