Judy Gamble

On Sunday, November 30th, 2008 Judy Gamble of Moose Jaw passed away peacefully in her sleep after a brief illness. Judy was famous for her baking and especially for her buns which she loved to make for her family. She was a talented painter with a passion for house plants and flowers, and a love for old western movies. Judy's career was comprised of working at Providence Place Hospital and later at Extendicare, where she not only enjoyed working with the residents and staff, but most of all, working alongside here sister Verla. She was a devoted mother and was known as "Nana" to her friend's children. Judy was predeceased by her Mother, Father, two brothers and her sister Verla, who passed away in January. Judy will be lovingly remembered by her son Darren; her brother Daryl (Carol) Uhrich and her many good friends. In keeping with Judy's wishes there will be no funeral service.
