Susan, I am so sorry to hear of your son's death. It is never easy when they take their own lives and I hope that the memories of the young man you loved so much will make this time a bit easier. I am thinking of you and hoping your heart heal a little at a time with those memories of your "little boy".

this is hard to look at, because it still dosent seem real. all my childhood friends are now dead, everyone I hung out with in highschool is gone. but ceetz just messes with my head more than any of them. he was the strongest person I have ever met. if he wanted to do somthing he would not quit until it was done. no matter what obstacle came his way he would find away around it or over it. rest in peace ceetz. -heros are rememberd, but legends NEVER DIE. -a coward dies a thousand deaths, thats why ceetz only left the world once. he wasnt a coward. goodbye - Clayton Thomas Piers Gardner.
