Sorry to hear about Sharon, we knew her and her family for many years. We knew she wasn't doing well for a few years, but it is still upsetting.

To Wade and to Sharon’s children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, I’m so sorry for your loss. I will miss her too. We grew up together in Keeler as cousins and buddies. In later years I was happy to reconnect with her and I valued our long phone chats. May your memories and strong family bonds bring you comfort and peace. Sharon’s legacy lives on in all of you. .
