Amy Ruth Hartell

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Amy Ruth Hartell on Monday, July 1st, 2019 at the age of 95 years. Ruth was born on her Uncle Dick Greenfield's homestead northeast of Tugaske, SK on October 30th, 1923 to Noel and Amy (Greenfield) Chamberlain. Two weeks later the family moved into town when her Dad became postmaster. Ruth attended school in Tugaske and upon completion she joined the Royal Canadian Air Force, Women's Division. Ruth began training at the Providence Hospital in Moose Jaw, graduating in 1950 as a Registered Nurse. Her nursing duties took her to Central Butte, Outlook and Regina General. In November of 1954 Ruth married Lorne Hartell and resumed her life back in Tugaske, where they raised their family and built their "retirement home". Ruth remained in Tugaske until seven weeks prior to her passing when she took up residence in the Regency Manor Care Home in Central
