My condolences on the passing of Alma. She appears to have been a very happy person.

I was born June 13th, 1945, just days after her, in B.C. My mother Katherine Baird was from Pasqua, my father William Lamb from Belbeck. My father was in the RCAF, stationed in Bella Bella, where I was born.

Our family is saddened to hear about Alma's passing. We fondly remember the joy she brought to every card game she played while visiting our parents and how her laughter filled the room. It was so special that she recently visited our mom and was in such wonderful spirits. Wishing you comfort and peace during this difficult time.
