The adventurous couple shared a love of travelling, dancing, and their passion of fastball and bowling. Those closest to him will always remember his quick smile and generous heart. Jerry worked various jobs throughout his life, ending his working career retiring from Safeway after 25+ years. Some of Jerry's favourite pastimes included watching baseball and his favourite team the L.A. Dodgers, and curling. Together, Jerry and Ernie spent watching his "adopted" grandchildren grow-up. They supported them in all their endeavours. If there was a sport, play, graduation, or parade,

Jerry and Ernie were always there. Jerry will be sadly missed by his adopted family, The Cox's: Greg, Sheila, Steven (Larissa), Molly, Eric, and "Papa's" little girl, Aubrey. In keeping with Jerry's wishes, a private service will be held.
