My deepest sympathies to you, Angie and Michelle, David and Boyd. Cheryl and I go back almost 50 years now, school at STI in 1969/1970, so many great times at the farm, sharing some good memories while she lived with my family in Moose Jaw, and branching out on our adult lives together. We were not close in recent years but this sad occasion has brought back some vivid memories that I will cherish forever. I will be thinking of you all. Susie (Draper) Lariviere

My condolences to Cheryl’s family and friends along with warm thoughts and gentle hugs. I’ve known Cheryl since she moved to Moose Jaw, she was one of the nicest women I’ve met. She loved the song Funny Face, and would get up and sing it with us at the Eagles when we played there.

My deepest sympathies to the entire family – especially David and Boyd. We go back a long ways to grade school, high school and beyond – although I have not seen Cheryl in years. David, Robert Elaine, Cheryl and I were close – in the old days – at school and after and a lot of fond memories growing up. Cheryl was always a competitor when it came to all sports. May she rest in peace. Jim Major.
