My sympathy goes to you all. Dick will be missed by all. I remember the day i met both Dick & Anne when they came for a tour of Mulberry Estates. They both fell in love with my cinnamon buns, and from there became a friendship with the whole family. May you rest in peace my friend. Your are now in gods hands and watching over the ones you love.

Our condolences to the whole family. Dick was such a kind man, always made my day better for having seen him. I knew him as a client years ago and thought he was one of the handsomest men. May he Rest In Peace, free of pain. I know the past few years must have been really hard for him and all of you.
