Dear Sheryl and family,
Sorry to hear of your dear Dad's passing. Jim became a friend of my sister Sheryl Reader while they were both in care at Ross Payant. We got to know and visit with him as well. His friendship with Sheryl grew as they had daily, friendly competitive Yahtzee games!! We always were told who won that day! Thinking of you. ❤

Was nice to talk to you via phone a few days ago Sheryl. Your whole Ontario cousins send our heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your father. They leave a hole in the family but as the months and years go by the memories take the place of the hole and soon the memories are warmer and funnier than ever. We have had this experience. My grandson knows more about his grandfather then he would have were he physically with him. This spring, as fishing season opened, he stood a fishing pole against his grandfather’s stone so he could join him fishing when he was ready. He never met his grandfather. He connects with him through our stories. So I am sure your grand children will also. Memories get better with the telling.

We will not be able to be with you but know that we all send you and your family a group hug from Ontario.
