They were always one of the coolest parents on the block. How hard this journey must have been for you all. They are together eternally now. When you think of them let the smile come before the tear if you can.

Dear Wendy, Michael and Joshua

Your Dad and I shared many emails, (he always sent me my giggle of the day) and a few early morning phone calls. Your mom and dad were always nothing but kind and welcoming to me. I so enjoyed their company and the best thing of all, was they both had a sense of humour. I wish I had the words, but there aren't any that help.

Bev # 3 – (Victor named me) & Marlin
