My younger sister, Linda, was a happy, cheerful, person. Music was her passion and hobby. She had unique ways of expressing herself.. as a child...she had her elbow...and...her otherbow! I can hear her voice as I write this. I can hear Mom say..Linda! What are you doing here!? I will miss her and will remember her always. Her family was her greatest joy. To be remembered is to live forever.

I loved my aunt Linda for her joy, her humour & witty sarcasm, her gentle spirit, and caring heart. I felt a special bond with her every time we would get together at family reunions because my mother would frequently say the wrong name when addressing either of us. We became ... "Paulinda". God bless.

I worked with Linda in the school system for a few years, and we had so so much fun! She was spontaneous, happy and just a joy to be with! She had that twinkle from Nova Scotia in her eye, that kept you wondering what was going to come next. Enjoyed working with her so much, and my condolences to her family on her passing.
