I was saddened to hear of Audrey's passing. My heartfelt condolences go out to John, Paul, Mary & families. May the good Lord be with you. When Bob & I were stationed with George & Audrey in Metz France Audrey was like my mother away from home. Great memories.

I have fond memories of Mrs. McCubbing coming into Gingerbread Square when I worked there. She loved to look through the store, often choosing items for loved ones. We had the most lovely chats about her trips to England with her son. What a sweet lady. My condolences to her family.
