Ena was such a special lady. Three years ago, she brought me over the most beautiful poinsettia. My husband had passed away the previous year and he always bought me one for Christmas. That gift from Ena was so meaningful to me. Richard used to deliver the flyers... he always had a short visit with Ena and David. She will be missed!

Ena and Marie were very close friends for much of their lives. When Marie moved to Mississippi they kept in touch with letters and calls. Until suddenly the connection was broken.

Marie sends her condolences to all those friends who were fortunate enough to be in Ena's circle.
