Greg was a legend...an incredible and caring man. So many fond memories of my Moose Jaw family from my time lived in the West. My heart breaks for all of you. One thing I know is you have the best Guardian Angel one could ever wish for watching over you. I am guessing he is hanging with Dad, Nan and Pop and Uncle Oran and Aunt Ella – there is likely a good game of Auction being played.

Sending you my love, heartfelt hugs and sincere condolences xoxo

Greg worked with me, and later for me at MJFD. I bumped into Greg not that long ago, we bantered about days since our retirements. Was absolutely shocked to hear of his passing. My condolences to the family, you lost a husband, father, grampa and the community has lost a very special citizen

Greg was an excellent coworker and friend at the firehall. As a fellow fire inspector, he was a great mentor and instructor, always willing to give of his time to assist you with any questions or issues that you may have had. He had just a ton of knowledge and experience that you could always lean on. He will be greatly missed.

My sincere condolences to the Reeves family.
