Dear Beryl
Please accept our deepest sympathies on the passing of Ray.
Bob knew Ray way back when they were just young whippersnappers and Bob has a few stories he tells of their times together.
May the happy memories of the good times you shared together be a blessing and may Ray rest in peace.

I got to know Ray when he spent his Saturday mornings at Johnstone’s Auction Mart. I will miss his sense of humour! He would always take his time coming up for a coffee…waiting for his friend Jim to buy! He would ask “did I wait long enough?” then laugh. He was always very careful that his lucky penny stayed in his wallet. I will miss him. My condolences to Ray’s family.

Our deepest sympathy to Ray’s family. He was a regular at our Saturday morning sales and we will miss humor. A short story, we remember most, him buying a certain item only to bring it back a week later telling us that “his wife won’t let me bring it in the house” Ha, ha! His laugh was infectious. Take care, Wayne, Scott, Corey & Sherri-Lynne.

My sincerest condolences to Beryl and the whole family. Ray was a wonderful, kind hearted soul, who could watch tv through closed eyes and snoring – don’t touch that remote, because he’s watching that program! Gosh he made me laugh. He was a pretty good dancer as well, as I was so fortunate to take a twirl around the dancefloor with him… only twice, but they were wonderful moments I still cherish. You both will always hold a special place in my heart. May fond memories bring you comfort during this very difficult time. Rest in peace dear Ray.
