My condolences to the family.

I remember your Mom from growing up next door and how well she treated us before we moved out of the neighborhood.

A vivid memory is from when all the boys on our side of the street would be playing in the fields across the tracks and there would be the Moms out on the back step calling everyone in for dinner or because it was too dark to play anymore.

One particular thing that I am personally grateful for is how she shielded us from our abusive father by keeping us in your basement when he showed up after our grandfather's passing.

Murray and I would like to send our love and prayers to the Scott family during this very difficult time. It is not easy losing someone so loved by all. Time will help. But mostly sharing and laughing is important. Your memories are always there. She will forever live in your hearts. Sherri and I worked together for years. I feel like I know all of you. I sure know your family bond. You are so lucky to have each other. The gift your parents gave you.

Sandi, Marilyn, Brian and Sherri – my memories of your mom and dad go back to the 60s when our parents would party, back and forth between Stadacona and Coteau,. Kids in tow. Our parents played cards and listened to music. The laughter reigned. Your parents were always such gracious hosts. Your dad loved to tell stories and jokes and sing a short tune or two. Your mom would laugh right along. They all knew how to laugh and I like to recall that sound and their happy faces. Condolences. I wish you peace and warm memories.
