His memory will be lovingly remembered by his children: Rick (Jen), Wendy (Jim) Phillips, Linda (Dave) VanDuyne, David, Melanie (Ken) Carter, Lisa (Bill) Lawson, and Shirley Seward; grandchildren: Neil, Colin, Jamie, Adrienne, Kate, Sarah, Jennifer, Rebecca, Matthew, Meghan and Daniel; seventeen great-grandchildren and nieces and nephews. Al was born in the lakeside community of Nakusp, British Columbia on February 28th, 1923. There he married the love of his life, Eva, on the 4th of June 1949. Al spent his early twenties as a wartime pilot and was recalled to the RCAF for a long flying career in the military. This was followed by years of water-bombing in Canada and abroad. Eva's love of the prairies brought them to Moose Jaw in 1979. Initially Al opened the Windsor Plywood franchise and became well known in the community as a skilled wood worker. Al became a resident of Providence
