Dear Beckie: I'm very sad to read of your dad's passing. I always enjoyed give him a hard time when he shopped at the Co-op. Hugs to you and your family.

To my god-father....
Uncle Jack, I'll miss your infectious laugh, your long winded crazy tales of adventure and the way you told a story like it was a question just about anything. You were a best friend to my parents from childhood to their golden years and their new spouses after their divorce. Who could ask for such a friend. I would always look forward to seeing you.....may you sleep easy and if you see your mom give her a hug from me.
