I have so many wonderful memories that Brittany was a part of. From early childhood up to young adulthood. Whether it was us kids coming over and my excitement for trips to the park with the girls, dolls in the back yard, or getting to hold the hamsters – or doing my co-op at the Best Western. I always looked forward to the days I got to shadow Brittany in housekeeping most. I remember really enjoying our conversations and the friendship that we had during that time. Brittany was such a kind, smart and caring individual. Everyone that was lucky enough to know her is truly blessed. Sending lots of love to the Southwood family during this time of mourning❤ But how sweet to know that she is undoubtedly in a much better place, and to know that you will get to meet again someday. My deepest sympathy. Keeping you all in my prayers.

My niece Brittany was a ray of light who exuded kindness and love. She was the beautiful kind of quirky that the world needs more of.
Wonderfully unique. Quick to smile. Genuine. Curious. She had a lovely sense of humour.
I will remember and love her forever, with a smile in my heart.

I wish I could be there with you all. To hug you and hold your hands.
We are grieving with you. Praying for you.
And also celebrating her life, and how blessed we are to have known and loved her.

We never knew Brittany personally, however, after reading all the lovely comments with respect to her love and kindness etc. we feel as though we know her. We have had the pleasure of becoming friends with her parents, Tim and Stephanie since moving to Saskatchewan just a few short years ago and have no doubt Brittany would have inherited the qualities as listed just from knowing her parents. Our hearts go out to you Both Tim and Stephanie and all your family. Hugs and prayers are sent your way.

I’m so sorry for all of you for your loss. For a brief time in our lives we had the pleasure to be apart of Brittney’s life and she in ours. She was smart and witty as well read me her stories for my thoughts and a beautiful person inside and out. May the Lord bless you with His strength and peace.

I am so sorry for your loss. Brittany was such a kind and loving woman. I loved how when she would babysit me she would go through her Titanic book with me. She is one of the reasons why I enjoy reading and learning about history. I'll always remember her with a smile, just like she brought smiles and laughter to everyone around her. My thoughts are with you and all who were fortunate enough to know and love Brittany during this difficult time.
