   It is with a heavy heart and great sadness that both Sandy and myself (Tom) have to say goodbye to Dwayne. He did so much for so many, and would open his home to anyone who needed help or a place to stay. You will be missed dearly my friend. And we send our deepest condolences to Pat,Heather and the kids (Tye,Emma,and Allison). And to the rest of Dwayne’s immediate family.

Our families lived less than a block apart on Athabasca East. We always kept thing interesting in our neighborhood. So many memories, I can’t even begin to say. One thing I will say though. Through good time and not so good times, looking back, I would not change a thing. I will always have fond memories of Dwayne. Have a safe and swift journey my bro. Say hi to Grandpa and grandma for me please.
