My deepest sympathies on the passing of Aline. In the 1990s, I got to know her fairly well when she was the care provider for my good friends, Doris and Bill Damant. Aline was always so positive and cheerful, and Bill and Doris really enjoyed her visits. She and I would be invited to friend and family gatherings at the Damant home. Monique, I believe you were part of those visits? I am so sorry that this special woman has left too soon, and I wish your family peace and strength as you head into your "new normal."
