So sad to hear about the death of Uncle Johnny. He was a very fine man. My dad, Frank, was John's brother and we lived close to him on the farm near Spring Valley. I will always think of him as a true gentleman. Now he will be with Aunt Victoria in eternity. Rosemarie Yeo

My condolences to you all -Randy and Debbie, Joan and Gordy, Jeanette and Raymond and Families- uncle Johnny was a great and fun uncle! He was always ready with a smile and a joke -and will be greatly missed!

I am very sorry I will be unable to attend his funeral – I have dental surgery that day (& not till March if I miss this one). I will go to a weekday mass & offer it specifically for him in my intentions.
