I am so saddened to learn about Nicki's passing. I didn't "know" Nicki but we talked a couple of times over the phone as we discovered that we were first cousins through AncestryDNA. My deepest condolences for her family during this time.

Words cannot express what is in our heart for you and the family and for Nikki. Nikki lived and loved life with an exuberance that most will never experience. She loved with all her heart. Her cherished family and you, Doug were her world. Her smile and laughter will always be remembered by those of us she has said good-bye. Cherish your memories and fill your heart with love and hope. Wishing we were there with you. Hugs and more hugs coming your way. God Bless.

Anna and Doug.

So sorry for your loss. Nikki was always such a spitfire,
I enjoyed knowing her here in Chatham. Love to all.
