Daryl “Bubs” Uhrich

Daryl “Bubs” Uhrich of Moose Jaw, SK, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, July 25th, 2017 with his family by his side. Bubs was born in Swift Current, SK on February 16th, 1948. He will be remembered fondly by all of his family and friends, as he truly was one of a kind. Bubs started working in the drywall business at the age of fifteen in Calgary, AB, which eventually grew into a successful drywall company in Moose Jaw that lasted forty years. A lot of his success was attributed to his ability to take chances on those whom needed a second chance. Bubs was passionate and adventurous about life and living, and took spontaneous opportunities, no matter how big or small, to experience them. Bubs will be lovingly remembered by his family: Carroll, Todd (Vera), Jolene (Brad), and Lisa (Tim); grandchildren: Hailey, Jessie, Carter, Jacob, Josh, Max, Owen and Sophie; and nephews, Bart and Darren. Bubs has now joined his parents and four siblings on his next adventure. There will be a gathering for friends and family at Bob Smith’s shop (E.R. Smith Sand and Gravel) east of town on the Highway 1 service road on Saturday, July 29th, 2017 from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
