GRACE CAROLINE WATSON (née: Cremer)

June 13th, 1934 – April 15th, 2024

Grace Caroline Watson passed away peacefully at Crescent Park Retirement Villa in Moose Jaw, SK after a short illness on Monday, April 15th, 2024. The family would like to thank the staff at Crescent Park for their care and kindness during her stay. Grace was a loving wife, mother and grandmother. She was predeceased by her husband of 60 years, Alvin; their infant daughter, Cheryl Lynn; her parents; and her brothers, Bob and Herb. Grace is survived by her daughters: Cathy (Ken) Ashbee, Linda (Brent) Boechler, and Carol (Don) Strankman; seven grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren, one great-great-granddaughter; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Grace enjoyed two different careers in her lifetime. She worked for CIBC in Maidstone, SK, then with Royal Bank in Saskatoon and Regina, SK. When Grace gave up banking as a career, she started her dream job at People's Jewellers. She also worked at Mappins Jewellers and Mackenzie Jewellers.

Grace will be remembered for her infectious smile and her many kindnesses. Her kindness showed in the little things she enjoyed doing for those around her. Grace was a true and loyal friend. She will be missed by all who knew her.

A Celebration of Grace's Life will be held at a later date. Arrangements are entrusted to Moose Jaw Funeral Home, 268 Mulberry Lane. Michelle Ellis, Funeral Director 306-693-4550

For the family of Grace our sincere condolences ❤
Grace and my mom were neighbours at Parkville. We both enjoyed her friendly manor and caring ways. She had a beautiful smile and personality to add. She was there to lend a hand if needed.
I'm sure she will be greatly missed by all who knew her. She will be beside you always

Your mom touched many people's lives—ours included. We're grateful we got the chance to know her. The legacy Grace left behind will never disappear. She was a wonderful person, a thoughtful friend, and an unparalleled mother.

To quote Ed Sheeran, she was an angel in the shape of your mom, and friend. “There are no goodbyes for us. Wherever you are, you will always be in my heart.” –Mahatma Gandhi. Grace it was a true honor and privilege to have known you and you will be forever missed…love Jim, Cindy, and Olivia McClelland Saskatoon.
