Eddy was always one of those individuals that drew people to him. A kind person who really lived life as it should be, by your own terms. We are all in this together Eddy and we will all meet again one day and that day will be in peace. God's speed brother, God's speed.

My deepest condolences to Eddy's family. He has been taken at such a young age. Doesn't seem that long ago living down the street from him and his siblings.
