

Wilson, Bradley (Brad) John

October 1, 2025

Bradley (Brad) John Wilson

With heavy hearts we say goodbye to Bradley (Brad) John Wilson, who passed away suddenly on Friday, September 19th, 2025 at 56 years of age. Born in Melville, Saskatchewan on December 11th, 1968, Brad grew up in Moose Jaw, SK surrounded by family and friends.

Brad was a happy collector of anything and everything shiny. He had a love for fast Harleys and cars, and a passionate interest in his family history and the roots of the Wilson family homestead. Always outgoing, his interest in collecting and Moose Jaw history allowed him to make an incredible circle of friends.

He was predeceased by his parents, Doug and Bev Wilson; grandparents: Ches and Betty Wilson, and Frank and Alice Bingham; and uncles, Ralph (Connie) Wilson and John Wilson. Brad leaves behind his aunt, Annetta Wilson; cousins: Dianne Wilson, Laurie Marter (Dylan, Alana), Perry (Jane) Wilson (Marshall, Blaise, Christopher), and Donna (Herb) Hammer (Kirstyn, Kevin); as well as numerous third cousins.

Also remembering Brad are Dennis and Bette Lynn Blais, Chris (Zulema) Blais (Julian, Morgan, Althea, Mia), Daniel Blais and Andrea Blais.

A Celebration of Brad's Life will be held on Saturday, October 11th, 2025 at 2:00 p.m. in the Harvey Room at Moose Jaw Funeral Home. Arrangements are entrusted to Moose Jaw Funeral Home, 268 Mulberry Lane. Shirese Noble Funeral Director 306-693-4550

1.

Lianne Hietanen on September 29, 2025 at 6:07 pm

I am so sorry for everyone's loss. Brad brightened everyone's days with his facebook posts. I was so happy to be able to reconnect with him and see what he was doing to the old farmhouse. I don't remember much about it but my Mom and Dad kept it alive with slides of when we were there. I still have a few pictures of Brad and I together the first summer we were alive. Rest in peace Brad.

Reply

2.

Billy Munroe on September 29, 2025 at 6:08 pm

RIP Brad. You will definitely be missed by all who knows you.

Condolences to family and friends.

Reply

Gordon Barnett on September 30, 2025 at 9:58 pm

My Condolences to Family And Friends of the loss of Bradley.

Reply

3.

Shirley Tillie on September 29, 2025 at 6:20 pm

Brad you will be missed.Your history hunting trips caught everyone's interest.I hope someone will take up your cause of a museum of all your treasures.RIP my friend.

Reply

4.

Troy Feist on September 29, 2025 at 6:23 pm

Brad was one of a kind, a great friend and great human. I've knowing Brad close to 50 years. Brad will be missed by many people. I will miss our daily chats. R.I.P. my friend.

Reply

5.

Mel and Dino on September 29, 2025 at 7:00 pm

Rest in peace

Reply

6.

T on September 30, 2025 at 7:01 am

To your family, I'm so sorry...Brad, I'm shattered, you took my heart with you...

Reply

7.

Sandi Nixon on September 30, 2025 at 9:51 am

I am so sorry to know that Brad passed away. He was such a joy to talk to, to be near. His love of life was contagious. He knew no strangers, everyone was a friend. He will be missed by all who had the good fortune to know him. Rest easy Brad...

Reply

8.

Wade Fielder on September 30, 2025 at 12:22 pm

Brad, we were in complete shock to hear of your sudden passing. We know that you are with the ones that you loved and spoke so highly of and missed dearly everyday of your life. Please know that we are honoured to have adopted your mom's beautiful little fur baby, "Jackie Moon". She will spend the rest of her days as a well cared for and loved member of our family. We promise you that when her time comes, she will be laid to rest with her beloved family, as she should be. We are comforted to know that you are with the ones you so dearly missed and loved every day. We will miss you old friend, rest in peace.

Reply

Norm Gardner on September 30, 2025 at 3:40 pm

Well Brad im going to miss the late night chats about harley parts and you coming to BC to ride some twisty roads, the conversations about grade school, bMX bikes. The day we lsughed about the first mustang you bought, and it jumped into reverse at McDoallds at lunch hour, because you left it running and backed into a parked car as you paid for your fries lol lol, I watched that first hand and will never forget that day, and how the city won't fix your damn sidewalk lol lol RIP my friend, you will be missed, I will be there to celebrate your life when the time comes my friend,

Reply

9.

Mary Ellen on September 30, 2025 at 4:52 pm

I'm one of Brad's 2nd cousins living in Ontario . After university I travelled West and stayed with Brad's parents (Bev and Doug) for a couple of months. In that time I came to think of Brad as my kid brother and continued to think of him that way through the years. Brad had a passion for life He loved his family and had a special connection to the family farm. I always looked forward to his Facebook posts and seeing what his new find was when he would go hunting for treasures. I know you have reconnected with so many family members and have that big smile of yours on your face. Will miss you cuz RIP

Reply

10.

Kim McDonough nee Fayant on October 3, 2025 at 4:58 pm

My condolences to Brad's close friends and family.
I was another one of those who had the pleasure debating things at the kitchen island, long chats about collectables at the dining room table, and getting to play pin ball games in the front room.

... you'll be missed, friend.

RIP

Reply

11.

Todd Campbell on October 11, 2025 at 1:08 pm

My sincere condolences to all of Brad's friends and family. I will miss Brad as I know many, many people will. Brad was a great guy and a very good friend. He was a gifted storyteller and had a gift of making people smile and laugh when you were around him. Rest in peace Brad. Thank you for your friendship and for the memories.

Reply

12.

Vicky Sisetsky on October 11, 2025 at 2:59 pm

My deepest sympathy to all the family of Brad, Wilson, Brad of a true friend of mine I will miss you tremendously. We talked many hours many times about many things mostly about his mom and dad treasured and saved all his memories. He saved all his mothers., memories letters everything that's what he wanted it to be. He loves his mother and father tremendously. He told me time and time again how great they were, and how much they meant to him with all the memorabilia that they saved for him, and he continued on in their gathering all the memory of life...

Brad was one of a kind the most gentleman I've ever met. He was sweet kind and generous and he knew his life was in store for him and he left by it 100%.. I love the family dearly. I never forgot where he came from.... my sincerest condolences to all his family ...

And also most of his friends they will always remember them and I know that I will always God bless you rest in peace and will see you in heaven...

Reply

