Lillian and Mac spent their early years farming and ranching in the Coderre area, until Mac rejoined the army in 1949. The army years had them posted twice in Calgary, then Moose Jaw, Whitehorse and Regina. They ended their military travels in 1959. Mac and Lil owned several businesses; a garage in Calgary, a General Store in Quinton, hotels in Weekes, Englefeld, Hendon, Meacham; an apartment building in Moose Jaw; a motel, garage and restaurant in Englefeld. Upon retirement they settled in Moose Jaw. Lil will be remembered for her love of life, laughter, her sense of Lil is survived by her husband Mac; children, Gloria (Stewart) Scott, Brenda (Doug) Grisdale, Deborah (Barry) Allen, Mona (Brent) Schultz and Douglas (Christine) Wilson; 11 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren; brothers Oliver, Louis and Richard; sisters Olive, Pauline, Aline and Bernice. Lil was treasured by her husband Mac, and will remain in his and their children's hearts forever. Her grandchildren and great grandchildren will remember her smile, hugs and her inspiration for life.
