Antje was my hairstylist back in the Velvet days and then more recently at Iron Style House. I last sat in her chair in early February. She was so determined to keep working, no matter what. Antje was such a fabulous person and I will miss her. My condolences to Antje's husband and friends.

I'm so sorry to hear of the loss of your precious wife. I met her at the salon and we just clicked.

I appreciate how much she cared for me and others. She even gave me a free haircut once! And a hug!!

She always talked about her girls and would show me how they had grown. And her fur babies. And how she loved to have quiet time with her husband doing jigsaw puzzles.

I haven’t seen her for a while. Would grab a quick haircut when I was in Saskatoon. And she called to see if I was okay. Would be worried.

There are people who just stand out and she was one of them.

My hope for her is life forever in a Paradise earth with no more sickness, sorrow or death reunited with her dear husband. That is a comfort while we wait to welcome her back.

My sincerest condolences.
